

A Psalm of Adoration and Delight

By Messianic Rabbi Ed Rothman

1 Everyday I am in awe of Your magnificent splendor! Everyday I am satisfied early by the mention of Your name and the sweet symphony of Your voice entreating me to walk with You hand in hand through the adventure of this day.

2 As I consider all the blessings that You have freely bestowed upon me and upon those I hold dear to my heart,

3 It brings to my remembrance the amazing grace that surrounds me every moment of every day that You have privileged me to live.

4 When I behold the immeasurable vastness of Your creation: the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them; I am reminded of the immense majesty of Your loving-kindness and the unfathomable depths of Your tender mercies that are more enduring than the mountains.

5 Therefore I am humbled by Your gracious goodness that seems to have no beginning and no end. You alone are the supreme source of all of my desires and the fulfillment of all of my need.

6 When I contemplate the unending patience that You have shown in dealing with my sins, I can only repent and rush to return to Your compassionate embrace.

7 My heart longs and yearns to draw ever closer to You, to know You as deeply as I am known by You; for without You I am just a stumbling, stumbling fool, and I would have no real direction or meaningful purpose in my life.

7 In Your presence I find my deepest longings fulfilled and my most heart-felt yearnings are realized as I behold Your glory in the Tabernacle of Your Holiness.

8 When I am overwhelmed by the complexities and pressures of my life: I run to You and find my place of rest in our secret place. O Most High, for You are the Rock of my Redemption and my Fortress where I am freed from frustration.

9 There is no one like You in heaven and no one beside You in the earth. You are the one who truly cares for my soul. You keep me safe from the schemes of the adversary and command your ministering angels to watch over me and those I hold dear.

10 If not for You, I do not know where I would be. If not for You, I might not be here at all. If not for You, I would not be where I am. All I can say is, "Thank You very, very much!"

12 My highest joy is to sing praises to You. My greatest pleasure is to bring glory to Your Holy name. My constant prayer is that I may become so enraptured with Your love, that my only thought continually is to trust in You with all my heart and thereby please you in all of my ways!
