

THE FATHER'S HEART

The Father's Heart is ever towards His children. To love them, establish them, to free them and to give them good gifts from the Father's throne room.

The Father's Heart is to bring freedom to those held captive, to set them free from their bondages of and to this world.

The Father's Heart is to establish His children in a secure relationship with Him. To teach them His precepts of higher and holier ways.

The Father's Heart is to plant His love in their hearts that they may show forth His higher, purer ways to a hurting and dying world.

The Father's Heart is to encompass us with a love and security in who He created us to be which will enable us to walk in our calling.

The Father's Heart is to hold us in His arms, our head on His chest so we can hear the heart beat of the One who loves us like no other ever can or will, with an everlasting, unquenchable love.

The Father's Heart yearns to establish us in an "intimate" relationship with Him. A relationship that surpasses all others ever known or to come.

The Father's Heart yearns to be compassionate to His children. To pour out blessings and break the curses of the enemy. To restore what the enemy has stolen, to restore, strengthen and renew us.

The Father's Heart is to create a "clean heart" in us to enable us to see we are not of this world but from a "heavenly kingdom" set apart to be about the Father's business.

The Father's Heart is to cleanse our hearts and minds. To take the old and establish the new to enable us to walk in our "high places."

The Father's Heart is full of unconditional love, mercy, goodness, healing, restoration, grace, forgiveness, kindness, mercy and compassion. His desire is to pour all of these gifts out to His children freely and abundantly to overflowing.

The Father's Heart yearns to have your time! Not a stolen moment here and there, not a fleeting thought while your in the shower or running out the door to work or speeding to your next appointment.

The Father's Heart wants "all of you." He wants you to purpose in your heart to set aside time for Him alone. To come to His throne room and spend time talking, sharing you heart, crying, praising, thanking and worshipping. But, also listening. Letting Him tell you of His love for you.

The Father's Heart wants you to "soak" in His presence. To let His Holy Spirit saturate every pore of your being. To bask in His radiant presence and let it refresh, revitalize, and rejuvenate your entire mind, body and spirit. He wants to make you a "new creation."

The Father's Heart desires to teach you His ways, the ways of the Creator of the universe. To help you walk in total freedom. To be creative, loving and desiring His good for your life.

The Father's Heart desires for you to know you were chosen, loved and planned! You belong to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. You are royalty! He wants you to know this, not so you think your better than others but so you understand you are to "walk in a manner worthy of your calling."

The Father's Heart desires for you to know the person He created you to be before the foundations of the world. There is not another person like you in all the world! You are truly one of a kind, a "masterpiece." More priceless than any Rembrandt, Monnet or Picasso.

The Father's Heart is to pour out His tender compassion on you. To heal all your hurts and pains that the world has inflicted. To bind up the wounds from the enemy. To transfuse you with the power of His Holy Spirit. To mend your broken bones, crushed by the enemy of your soul. To rehabilitate and strengthen you in the Tabernacles of the Lord! To send His ministering angels to pour out His Balm of Giliad, to envelop you in His liquid love and healing! To bring you to a place where you can mount up on eagles wings and realize a freedom for your life you NEVER knew was possible! A freedom that enables you to be all He has for you.

The Father's Heart desires to "open your eyes." To give you keen new eyesight that you might see things of the Heavenly Realm here on earth. Glimpses of angels so you know your not alone. He has gone before you to prepare the way. To enable you to see the desperate need and dire straights of those around you who don't know of the Father's Heart. Who have no hope, know of no unconditional love, know of no respite from their pain. Who know of no compassion or mercy, who feel lost, alone and overwhelmed. Who believe the lies of the enemy and think - this is their lot in life, this is really all they deserve! They know of no merciful "Father's Heart."

Their father beat them, physically, verbally or sexually abused them. Many don't even know who their father is! He has never been part of their life. They have known no father's love, no father's tender touch, no father's joy at sharing in their accomplishments. No fathers comfort and consoling when they are hurt. They have not seen the love pouring from their father's eyes when he looks upon His child and feels a love so deep, so intense, so encompassing for his child that it can only be experienced, it can't accurately be put into words. They know not a "Father's Heart of love."
