An examination of worshipping God thru dance
- Jesus the Jewish Theologian – Brad H. Young
Understanding Jesus Jewishness is essential to understanding the nature of our faith
- Paul the Jewish Theologian – Brad H. Young
Paul & his teachings are rooted in Judaism, not Hellenism. This is essential to understanding Paul's writings
- Yeshua: A guide to the real Jesus and the original church – Ron Moseley
Y'shua's teaching can only be understood in a Jewish context.

- Our hands are stained with Blood – Michael Brown
Deals with the anti-semitism of the Church and with present day Anti-Semitism in today's media and pulpits
- Intimate Moments with the Hebrew Names of God – Mallin & Wolkenfeld
Learn the names of God in Hebrew with an English transliteration to help pronounce. A very simple "devotional style" book.
- His Names are Wonderful – Helen Vander Meulen/Barbara Malda
Learn the names of God. 140 Names divided into 8 sections. Devotional.
- Why Care about Israel? – Sandra Teplinsky
The author, a Messianic Jew, writes about the importance of blessing Israel and the Jewish people from a biblical, prophetic and intercessor viewpoint. This book is primarily for the Non-Jewish follower of Yeshua who has a heart for Israel and the Jewish people..
- God's Promise and the Future of Israel by Don Finto
A book about the Nation of Israel, the Jewish people and Messianic Jewish followers of Y'shua and its place in biblical end-time/prophetic events. Some chapters are explanations of topics and some chapters are question and answers.
- In That Day by Rabbi David Levine
Messianic Rabbi David Levine's account of how Y'shua is revealing Himself to His Jewish people-past, present and future. A good book for those in Messianic Congregations as well as for those who love Israel and the Jewish people.
- What Do the Jewish People Think about Jesus? by Michael L. Brown
Now Available "Do the Jewish people expect a literal Messiah?" "Do they have denominations?" "What are the 10 lost tribes of Israel?" Brown---a Jewish believer--- answers 60 common questions regarding Jewish customs and beliefs; plus fascinating quandaries regarding Christians and Old Testament law, including "Should Christians observe the Sabbath on Saturday?" and "Are Gentile Christians spiritual Jews?"
- Standing with Israel by David Brog
This book is written by a Jewish man, who is not a follower of Yeshua, examining the growing movement within Christianity that supports Israel. It is written primarily with the Jewish reader in mind since the vast majority of the information in this book is unknown to them. It is also a good book for followers of Yeshua. This book is well researched and well written. THIS IS NOT A "CHRISTIAN-BASHING" BOOK.
- Praying like the Jew, Jesus by Timothy P Jones
This is a great book, especially as a devotional on prayer. Each Chapter opens with an introductory prayer, then a fictionalized account of a part of Yeshua's life that pertains to the topic. It then proceeds to the lesson and ends with a meditation.
- Christ in the Feast of Pentecost- by David Brickner
